

Future of Food_Phase II: Questions

to guide your thinking about your SPECIAL INTEREST, in relation to the as a Political Issue.

1. How would you describe as a political problem or issue?
2. What, if any, policies, regulations, or laws exist -that are related to ?
3. What, if any, myths, assumptions, etc. might current policies, regulations, agreements, or laws be based on?
4. What international agreements (conventions,law) have been made that relate to _?
5. What, if any, special attention or agreements (conventions, treaties, resolutions) have been taken or made by the United related to____in relation to the Future of Food?
6. Is there any international policy or law in place in relation to ____?
7. If so, what? If you are unsure, is this something you need to research to find out?
8. What kinds of regulations /laws would have a positive impact on ____?
9. What does the UDHR say that relates to __ (what does it say, state? What article is it?)
10. What kinds of political action would support_____, as far as protecting a related right and increasing food security?
 - Who should bear responsibility for related actions?
 - Citizens?
 - Elected leaders?
 - Local and/or National level leaders?
 - International body?
 - Is this kind of action an option or alternative? Or is it a
 - moral imperative?
 - duty?
 - national/international security issue?
11. In what way(s), if any, might actions toward achieving food security related to _____ have Social, Environmental, or Economic implications?
Can these be viewed as positive, negative?
12. In what ways are Social Environmental & Economic factors related to or interacting with/affecting ____? (i.e, do you see any relationship between the political decisions and the environment, and do these together have a causal relationship with your SPECIAL INTEREST?)
13. What do you need to know moving forward about your topic in relation to this area?